

JOB TITLE:	CLIMBING COACH
SALARY	UP TO £13.75 PER HOUR
REPORTING TO:	CENTRE MANAGER/ HEAD COACH
ROLE DESCRIPTION:	As a Climbing Coach you will be central to delivering a first-class climbing experience. You will work closely with the coaching team, especially during academy hours, where you'll focus on teaching kids lead climbing and belaying techniques. Alongside this, you'll support movement analysis, helping climbers understand and overcome the unique challenges of rope climbing. Strong instructional skills, particularly around safety, are key to your role.
KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Lead academy sessions, focusing on teaching lead climbing, belaying, and safety protocols to kids.</li><li>● Conduct movement analysis and provide guidance to help climbers improve their technique on ropes.</li><li>● Deliver group classes, individual lessons, and youth squad coaching, ensuring participants feel supported and challenged.</li><li>● Work collaboratively with other coaches to maintain a safe, welcoming environment while adhering to health and safety standards.</li><li>● Provide feedback and support to climbers at all skill levels, helping them progress through structured programs like NICAS.</li><li>● Assist with the training and development of fellow coaches, sharing your knowledge on safety, movement, and instructional techniques.</li><li>● Admin and record keeping</li><li>● Any other duties deemed suitable by Head Coach and Centre Manager</li></ul>